PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Howdy, my friends! Let's talk about Bartimaeus, the blind beggar who likely had clearer vision than most of us. In our fast-paced world of endless notifications, deadlines, and to-do lists, aren't we sometimes the truly blind ones? We see everything around us, yet miss what truly matters.

Ah, Bartimaeus! Stuck on the roadside, begging for scraps like a dog eyeing your steak at a barbecue. His life echoes ours more than we'd like to admit. How often do we find ourselves stuck on life's sidelines, waiting for the perfect magical moment to make a move? Like Bartimaeus, we might be trapped in unfulfilling jobs, relationships, or habits, too terrified to step into the unknown or to make a commitment. Yet, despite his physical blindness, Bartimaeus saw what others had missed, refused to understand, or chose to ignore.

This story reflects our human experience. We are Bartimaeus - marginalized by our own fears, doubts or stagnation. We are the crowd - sometimes lacking compassion, failing to see that when one suffers, we all suffer. But the real plot twist is that we've also got the capacity to be like Jesus - really seeing people, caring about their struggles, and bringing healing to the hurting.

Let's face it - our spiritual blindness often stems from a toxic cocktail of selfishness, indifference, and ego, a big one. We become entangled in our own agendas and comfort zones, losing sight of God's greater purpose. Our vision narrows until our world shrinks down to "me, myself, and I."

But here's where Bartimaeus becomes our life coach. When he heard Jesus was near, he didn't care what anyone thought or about any obstacles in his way. People tried to silence him, yet he shouted even louder: "Son of David, have mercy on me!" When was the last time we showed such bold faith?

Have you ever felt like an outsider? Needing help but afraid to ask? That was Bartimaeus's daily struggle. Yet when Jesus called, he didn't hesitate - he threw off his cloak, his only possession, his security blanket and ran to Jesus. What's your "cloak" today? What are the false securities you are clinging to?

This week, I'm challenging you: What's holding you back from experiencing the fullness of God's plan for your life? Fear, doubt, or something else? Whatever it is, channel your inner Bartimaeus and shout out to Jesus for help. Louder! He's waiting to hear your voice and open your eyes to the incredible plans He has for you.

Just like our buddy Bart, when Jesus restores our vision, let's not just go back to our old ways. No! Let us use our new vision to seek out the lost, mend the broken, and advance His Kingdom right where we are.

So, my dear friends, what's gonna be? Will we remain content in our comfortable blindness, or will we step out in faith to see and serve the world as Jesus does? So what do you say - are you ready to have your eyes opened? Praise God, Jesus is still in the business of eye-opening and he's got a special two-for-one deal just for you today. Let's do this church!

The Food Pantry would like to thank you for your donations especially after Hellene. We also received a large donation from the low country that was brought to us by Jeff Crouch, Knights of Columbus.

It seems there is a shortage of Vienna Sausage and this is an item that goes in every bag! Now that cooler weather is approaching, we can use men's and women's tennis shoes or work boots, (no dress shoes) coats, hoodies, hats, gloves, and blankets. We can always use personal care items.. razors, deodorant, soap, shampoo etc. These items are placed in a plastic bag and given out weekly as needed. Without your support, our neighbors would be in greater need. Again, thank you.

For donating your TIME & TALENT to make our annual Parish Picnic a SUCCESS!

Thank You
