PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

PASTORAL REFLECTION & WEEKLY OFFERTORY RECAP

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

My dear friends in Christ, as we journey through this Advent season, let us reflect on the transformative power of hope in our lives. These are challenging times. Our political climate has polarized us, leaving many questioning whether our systems truly serve the common good. Disagreements often escalate to anger or hatred, deepening divisions even within the Church itself. Have mercy, oh Lord! Do we see the one who sits next to us in the pew as our brother or sister in Christ, or do we see only their political labels and social status? We must remember that, regardless of our differences, we are all brothers and sisters in Christ. Though let's admit it, some of our spiritual siblings can really test our patience!

Let's be honest – the holiday season can feel like navigating a minefield or a quicksand. Between work stress, family expectations, the perfect gift or the ideal Instagram post and endless to-do lists, it's easy to lose sight of the true meaning of this sacred time. Yet Preparedness is essential. It's like carrying a Swiss Army knife that helps you handle whatever comes your way.

So here's a tough question: Am I truly willing to prepare a way for God in my life and in our community here at St. Anthony's? Are we ready to make space for Him, not just in our hearts but in our tangible actions? Saint Paul's prayer for the believers in Philippi challenges us to consider how we can grow in love for those around us, asking God to increase our capacity for compassion. Is love in the air? Is it overflowing?

The prophet Baruch speaks a message of consolation and hope, promising that God will come to free us from sadness and pain. In these turbulent times, we are all yearning for comfort: "for God is leading Israel (and us) in joy by the light of his glory, with his mercy and justice for company."

I know that many of you are carrying heavy burdens that feel impossible. Health challenges, financial stress, or relationships that seem beyond repair. The holidays can amplify or worsen these struggles, leaving us desperately searching for peace.

But here is the truth: You are not alone. We all need comfort. Comfort is about finding peace in the midst of chaos. John the Baptist calls out, "Prepare the way of the Lord," reminding us that true comfort is on its way. Jesus, the Divine Comforter, is with us every step of the journey.

Reflecting on our inner landscape, let's talk about those valleys and mountains we all have and that require leveling. The valleys are those parts of ourselves we know need work like patience, kindness, and gentleness. The mountains are stubborn habits we need let go of - pride, envy, partiality, resentment, selfishness, that quick tendency to judge and condemn others.

Think of this Advent season, my friends, like a personal retreat. It's about facing the uncomfortable and ugly truths we usually avoid. Remember, true discovery and growth begin within ourselves, and even in the emptiness or chaos we may encounter, God is present. Will we trust Him to guide us through the wilderness?

When you pray, don't overthink it. Just be authentic, humble and honest. Something like, "God, I'm struggling. Help me. Increase my faith," or "Oh God, have mercy on me, a sinner." These prayers bring peace and inner joy. God's judgment is rooted in infinite love. Do we believe that, even when our hearts condemn us?

Salvation comes with Jesus, bringing radical transformation. He makes us new. Paul's prayer in the second reading offers guidance for this Advent season, urging us to broaden our perspective beyond our personal struggles and pay attention to those around us.

As we embrace Advent, let us renew our imagination and ask: What is God doing in my life right now? Let us open our hearts, just as we are, and joyfully welcome the Lord. Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus, come! We're ready. Amen.

BULLETIN CONTENT SUBMISSION

Anyone parish group/organization wishing to submit items for publishing in the weekly bulletin should send the content to Kyle Hall (kyle.hall@charlestdiocese.org) by end of day Tuesday for the coming weekend's bulletin. Submissions may have to be edited due to space constraints.

Seeking Volunteer Grant Writer for St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School

Dear Parishioners,

I hope this message finds you well. We are reaching out to our community with an exciting opportunity to make a significant impact on St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School. We are currently seeking a dedicated volunteer grant writer to help us secure funding for our various programs and initiatives.

As a volunteer grant writer, you will play a crucial role in developing and executing a grants strategy that will benefit our school. Your efforts will directly support our mission to provide quality education and community services. This is a wonderful opportunity to use your skills to support a cause that makes a real difference in our community. If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information, please contact me via email at mboyd@stanthonygreenillesc.org.

THANK YOU!

Please accept our sincere thanks for your generous contributions on Giving Tuesday. If you did not get an opportunity to give on Giving Tuesday, the link to the Givebutter website will remain open for you to give for the next week. You will have another opportunity to give during our weekend Masses by using a "Giving Tuesday Envelope" on December 7 and 8. Let's keep that Giving Tuesday momentum going!

THANK YOU!
