PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Imagine Jesus standing in front of you, asking, "What would you like me to do for you?" It's like a genie offering to grant your biggest wish. What would you ask for?

In our world today, everyone seems consumed by the pursuit of being the best, gaining recognition, and beating others in our competitive, win-at-all-costs society. But Jesus offers a radically different perspective. He tells us, "If you want to be great, serve others." This idea goes against what we usually hear, doesn't it? It's not what we're used to at all.

Think about James and John in our Gospel passage. They were Jesus' closest companions. But even they got caught up in wanting to be important and powerful. This quest for self-promotion is a common human instinct, and Jesus knows it well. His message to them and to us is clear: "You think you're special? Try putting others first instead."

Our generation, and those to come, must learn the five timeless core messages of initiation that have been universally taught throughout the ages: Life is hard. You are not that important. You are not in control. You are going to die. Life is not about you; you are about life and about serving others.

At its core, Jesus' message is simple: put others before yourself. It sounds easy, but what does it really entail? When we think about it, we realize that truly serving others requires a profound transformation of who we are at our core.

When Jesus talks about "drinking from his cup," he is alluding to the fact that following him isn't always a comfortable path. It entails embracing discomfort, giving things up, and caring more about what others need than what we want. In a world that's all about comfort and getting what we want right away, this is a challenge ask. But Jesus isn't asking us to do anything he wouldn't do himself. He wants us to follow in his footsteps, to emulate his example. In God's kingdom, the last shall be first, and the greatest are those who humbly serve others. This is hard to do when everyone around us is trying to climb to the top and be better than others. But when we start to internalize this truth, we see the world differently.

As we go through our week, my friends, here is some food for thought: How can we reorient our focus toward serving others? What would it look like to embody servant leadership in our personal relationships, at work, or within our St. Anthony's fam? What fears or insecurities are hindering us from fully embracing a life of humility and self-sacrificing love?

So, I ask you, are you ready to embark on this transformative journey, to answer Jesus' unexpected and radical call to true greatness?

PARISH LIFE

The Food Pantry would like to thank you for your donations especially after Hellene. We also received a large donation from the low country that was brought to us by Jeff Crouch, Knights of Columbus.

It seems there is a shortage of Vienna Sausage and this is an item that goes in every bag! Now that cooler weather is approaching, we can use men's and women's tennis shoes or work boots, (no dress shoes) coats, hoodies, hats, gloves, and blankets. We can always use personal care items.. razors, deodorant, soap, shampoo etc. These items are placed in a plastic bag and given out weekly as needed. Without your support, our neighbors would be in greater need. Again, thank you.
