PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Don't we live in a time of paradoxes, my friends? I mean, with technology, we're more "connected" than ever before, right? Yet many of us feel deeply isolated and alone. We're glued to our screens, endless scrolling, but true and authentic human connection seems to elude us.

But there's good news, my friends! The key to unlocking our loneliness is found in the open and loving arms of Jesus Christ. He is the ultimate master when it comes to forging connections that are deep, meaningful, and healing.

Just think about it: Jesus didn't just talk to lepers from a distance; He reached out and touched them. He broke down barriers of fear and stigma with a simple, compassionate touch. And we cannot forget St. Francis, who took it even further when he kissed a leper - now that's love and acceptance on a whole new level!

Jesus didn't just talk about inclusivity; He lived it. He shared meals with tax collectors, sinners, and the marginalized—those rejected by society. So, I ask you, are we willing to invite someone different to our dinner table?

And what about the Samaritan woman? Jesus chatted with her, a member of a group that Jews typically avoided and despised. He saw beyond the labels and recognized her true worth. How can we, here at St. Anthony's, embrace diversity and unity? Perhaps it starts with sharing more than just a pew.

In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus heals a deaf and mute man with a single and powerful word: "Ephphatha," which means "Be opened." That's an invitation for all of us. When we interact with others, are we truly listening with the intent to understand, or are we just waiting to make our point? Do our words build up our sense of community or do they tear it down like a wrecking ball?

"Ephphatha" invites us to open our hearts and minds, to embrace kindness and encouragement, and to live out the joyful spirit of Afro-American spirituality.

When we open ourselves to Christ's healing touch, we step into a new world of connection—with God, with others, with ourselves, and even with nature. So, here's food for thought, how can we live as "opened" people on a daily basis?

Authentic connection happens when we dare to be vulnerable and transparent. When someone hurts you, remember how much Christ has forgiven you. Extend that same radical grace, and witness how it heals relationships and breathes new life into them. Is there someone you've been meaning to call or reconnect with? Don't wait another second, my friend.

In a world yearning for authentic connection, we can be the change agents, reflecting Christ's loving touch and breaking down walls of isolation and division. We can do this, church!

Let us pray for Jesus to open our hearts, helping us see others through his lens of love, acceptance, and compassion.

In Christ, we are reborn as new creations, designed for connection that reaches into eternity. Let's embrace it with everything we've got! Again, "Ephphatha"!
