PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

This Sunday, my friends, we're faced with a striking paradox that challenges us to explore the very core of our faith and humanity.

Get this scene: Jesus is pouring his heart out, sharing the ultimate sacrifice he's about to make for all of us. And his closest friends? What are they doing? They're too busy arguing about who's the most important, like kids fighting over the last cookie. Can you believe that?

But hold up, before we judge them too harshly, let's take a hard look in the mirror. How many times have we found ourselves in the same situation?

Sure, we all have dreams and ambitions. Right? that promotion, a bigger pay check, giving our families the best. Nothing wrong with that.

But here's the thing: our Gospel shines a spotlight on what's truly driving us. Are we just power-hungry, money-grubbing, recognition-seeking missiles in human form? Are we okay with stepping on others to get ahead, even in our church or volunteer work? Or maybe we're hiding behind a facade of good deeds to make ourselves look better?

It's like the apostle James said: where there's jealousy and selfish ambition, there's chaos and every kind of evil. The disciples' petty argument is a shocking reminder that even good people can fall for the trap of pride, power, and greed.

So, let's get real with ourselves for a moment. When was the last time your faith set your soul on fire? Have you tried lately to get closer to God, to help someone in need without hesitation, or to be a better person even when life throws punches? As St. Augustine said, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you."

These questions, though maybe a little uncomfortable, make us face the difference between what we say we want and what our hearts really desire.

Think about this: what if we chased after our faith with the same passion we chase promotions, good sales or hobbies. What if we chased after righteousness like it was the last lifeboat on a sinking ship?

That is the kind of ambition that can transform lives and shake the very foundations of this world.

Remember how Jesus embraced that child and said, "Whoever welcomes one of these little ones in my name, welcomes me"? He's unveiling a revolutionary path to greatness—one paved with humility, selfless service, vulnerability, and boundless love. So, let's have the courage to realign our ambitions. Let's pour our hearts into building God's eternal kingdom, not our fleeting, self-serving kingdoms that will crumble like sand castles in the tide.

May God bless us with the unquenchable fire to pursue him above all else, guiding toward true greatness and goodness. Let's learn from the disciples' mistake and let our actions reflect the selfless and sacrificial love of Jesus Christ. Can I get a hallelujah?

Stewardship is not only about the needs of the Church, rather it is about our desire to give back to God in thanksgiving, by sharing with others the blessings the Lord has bestowed on us.

The true spirit of Stewardship is "Equal Sacrifice and not Equal Giving."

Cookies for Kairos

Fellow parishioners, St. Anthony's Prison Ministry is asking for your support by baking 3 dozen cookies for the Kairos Prison Ministry Walk that will take place at Perry Correctional Institutional October 3-6, 2024..

The cookies serve as a form of Agape which translates as LOVE and Manna from Heaven. The preferred cookies are: Molasses, Oatmeal, Sugar, Chocolate Chip and Peanut Butter. The cookies cannot contain raisins, nuts, sprinkles, icing or any toppings. They should be about 2 in. in diameter. Please package without foil or plastic wrap..

Cookies will be collected following each Mass on Sunday, September 29, 2024. and can be left in the social hall. Prayers for the success of the Walk are equally important. Please consider signing the prayer wheel located in the lobby.

Thank you for your kindness to those who are considered to be the least among us.
