PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Hey friends! Have you ever ponder living forever? Have you wondered what you'd actually do if you could live eternally? Exciting or terrifying? Susan Ertz captures this paradox so well in "Anger in the Sky," noting "how many people long for immortality but don't know how to fill a rainy Sunday afternoon." Oops! We didn't see this coming, did we? What does this reveal about your understanding of life's purpose and meaning?

This longing for eternal life echoes something eternal and profound within us. For Christians, it's recognizing God's presence inside us. St. Irenaeus beautifully articulated, "The glory of God is a human being fully alive." But what does being "fully alive" really mean? How we answer this could completely reshape our view of eternal life, both in the present and beyond?

Consider this: What would fully lived life look like for you? Is it about status, wealth, or something simpler like savoring that perfect morning cup of coffee? Now, how would your perspective shift if you had forever?

People pursue eternal life differently. Some, like Jeff Bezos, bet on technology, hoping to cheat death, while others turn to religion, asking "How can I be sure death isn't the end?" The Christian view, however, offers a unique insight.

In our Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a young man looking for eternal life to sell everything, give to the poor, and follow Him - emphasizing relationships and fraternity over riches. It's like Jesus is saying, "Hey, eternal life isn't about your stuff; it's about relationships—with God, with others, and being present in the moment."

So, let me ask you - are there things getting in the way of your relationship with God right now? Sometimes, our possessions and achievements can so easily become idols, usurping God's place. The Scripture reminds us: "You shall have no other gods before me" (Ex 20:3). Remember, eternal life isn't something you earn; it's a gift that comes from knowing God through Jesus. How do you unwrap that gift in your busy life and endless scrolling?

Living in the present- the "sacrament of presence" - is the key. Detaching from worldly distractions opens us to welcome God's love. But what's holding you back?

Surprisingly, even suffering and death, often seen as life's greatest enemies, can actually teach us wisdom and reliance on God. As the saying goes, "We are like eggs: we have to break and hatch. If we don't, we get rotten." Through trials, we learn life's true value. How have your trials help you grow?

At the end of the day, love is at the heart of eternal life, for "God is love" (1 Jn 4:16). Embracing this love dispels fear and compels to share it. How do you experience God's love? Hopefully, it's more fulfilling than just free samples at the grocery store!

Eternal life isn't about endless time; it's about the quality of our connection with God. Jesus invites us to travel light, letting go what weighs us down. When we do, life transforms from a test into an adventure.

So, how's your adventure going? Are you ready to start living "eternally" right now? What's your first step? Remember, life isn't a battlefield; it's a playground for God's love. Are you ready to play?
