PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

My friends, it seems we're caught in a bit of a pickle, aren't we? Here we are, in the midst of a heated presidential election season that's splitting us apart like never before, and yet, we're talking about love. I know it might sound as out of place as a lamb in a lion's den. But, stick with me. Love is the very heartbeat of who we are, the beginning and end of everything that matters.

Jesus laid it down for us crystal clear - love God with all you've got! But how do we love God we can't even see? Here is the profound truth: by loving everything and everyone that God himself loves. This radical, selfless love is how Jesus himself lived. If we're serious about walking in his footsteps, we have to stay plugged into the Source of all love. As 1 Jn 4:7 says, "Whoever loves is born of God and knows God."

Just like in Jesus's day, we've been given that same command - love God with ALL our heart, soul, mind, and strength! But what does that mean for us now? Does love flow through your veins like a mighty river, or is just a faded bumper sticker on your spiritual car? We can't hide behind pretty words anymore, church - we need a faith that changes everything.

Listen closer, my friends! When we anchor our allegiance to God with every fiber of our being, we'll know how to truly live, choose, value, and yeah, even vote. I know it's no easy task, but through honest prayer, deep listening, boundless love, and wise choices, we can navigate these stormy waters with grace.

The Second greatest Commandment makes it practical: "Love your neighbor as yourself." As Teilhard de Chardin put it, "The way we treat people is the way we treat God." Every time we're kind, every time we put someone else first, every time we build a bridge instead of a wall - that's how we show our love for God.

But each day, we face a crucial choice: we're either feeding that selfish monster inside or cultivating a garden of compassion in our hearts. So, who can pull us out of this quicksand of apathy and self-centeredness that threaten to swallow our souls?

Only Jesus can. He showed us that loving God and loving others go hand in hand. C.S. Lewis wrote that true love isn't about getting what we want. It's about giving. It's about loving the hard to love people, even those who vote differently than we do.

This is the love that Jesus embodied to the very end, the love that held Him to the cross, the love that beat death itself. As we find it in Jn 15:13: "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." This kind of love needs a response - it calls us to love back, no matter what.

So, I ask you, do we truly love others as Jesus loved us? Do we care about them as much as ourselves? True love for others starts by loving ourselves as God does - unconditionally, extravagantly, without reservation. If not, how can we ever hope to love our neighbors as Christ commanded?

It all boils down to love - a love that knows no boundaries or affiliations. When we focus on growing that kind of love, there's no room left for petty arguments or selfish thinking.

So rise up, church! This is our mission from God: love Him with every breath, love ourselves as God's beloved children, and love our neighbors as extensions of His heart. In these divided times, let us be lights of hope, shining with Christ's selfless, life-changing love. Only this kind love can heal our divisions and bring us back together.

Let's stand as one family in love, St Anthony. Can I get an amen? Let your voices shake these walls! Let heaven hear you! Amen! Amen!

NEWS FROM OUR SCHOOL

In honor of Red Ribbon Week, we held a variety of activities this week. The Jump Starts Read for the Record program was a great experience for us. We had a Read-In, and everyone came in their pajamas. Glenis Redmond, the City's Poet Laureate, came to read "Piper Chen Sings."

As part of our fire safety training, we were given fire safety tips by the Fire Department and their Safe House. Additionally, we took part in a neighborhood walk to let our neighbors know we are drug-free.

Red Ribbon Week came to an end with trick-or-treating around the school for the Pre-K students.

Next week, we will host Bring Your Parents to Gym Week.

Our Veterans Day Program is planned on November 11 at 8:30 a.m. in the gym, and, we look forward to seeing you then.
