PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women that serve in the armed forces do so with a form of sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to the Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stresses they face each day.

It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

PASTORAL REFLECTION & WEEKLY OFFERTORY RECAP

FROM THE DESK OF OUR ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

My dear friends, have you ever thought about reading a book by starting with its final chapter? Odd, right? Yet, here we are, at the beginning of the Church year, diving straight into the end of the world. Perhaps this unconventional beginning invites us to reimagine our perspective on faith, life, and hope.

Pope Benedict XVI offers us an intriguing insight: Faith isn't just about reaching a destination; it's about the journey itself. When planning a road trip, we usually set our GPS to know the destination. Would you ever start driving without knowing where you're headed? Probably not! The destination influences everything—the route, the stops, the luggage, even the snacks. But what if the true meaning of life lies not in where we are going, but in who accompanies us on the journey?

This shifts our focus from the endpoint to our companionship with Christ, who guides our path, much like the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Like pilgrims on the road to Emmaus, our path is defined by transformative encounters. Christ walks beside us, often unrecognized yet persistently present. Aren't we traveling this Emmaus road?

Walter Brueggemann reveals a profound truth: Hope is an act of rebellion. When life overwhelms us, hope becomes our most potent and radical force. It's active resistance against chaos and despair. This hope in Christ transforms death into life, sin into grace, and the cross into forgiveness.

Moreover, we aren't just waiting for something to happen; we are waiting to meet someone—Christ. He is not an abstract idea, but a living, risen presence who desires to transform both us and the world. Teilhard de Chardin believed that the entire universe is evolving towards an "Omega Point," God's endpoint where all will be united in Christ. Each moment of our lives is a step towards this union in Christ.

When Jesus admonished us, "Stay awake," he wasn't encouraging sleeplessness. He was inviting us to be fully present, to live each moment intentionally, aware of God's incarnated presence in everyone we meet. As Teilhard de Chardin observed it, "We are spiritual beings having a human experience." If we truly lived each moment as a spiritual encounter, how would our lives change?

Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez challenges us to see Christ in our daily interactions—in the stranger's kindness, a friend's concern, a spouse's care, or the silent presence of a fellow parishioner. These moments become windows into God's sacred reality, where His presence manifests in the ordinary. These are transformative encounters—liminal moments where God's epiphany is everywhere.

When we speak of "end times", we're not invoking fear but celebrating liberation and creation's perfection. Teilhard de Chardin envisioned humanity evolving toward higher consciousness, united in Christ's love. His metaphor of "discovering fire for the second time" suggests humanity's spiritual awakening to Christ's transformative love.

This vision calls us to embrace a journey of transformation, filled with radical hope and the promise of extraordinary possibility in Christ. Can we recognize the sacred in the everyday and participate in creation's journey toward its fulfillment in God's all encompassing love?

Let us unleash the power of radical hope in the ever-present Christ, the Omega Point of all creation, as everything is united in Him and through Him. By embracing this vision, we open ourselves to a transformative journey, one filled with hope, love, and the promise of something extraordinary on the horizon. Are we ready to begin this journey anew? Maranatha. Come, Lord Jesus.

Giving Tuesday

Giving Tuesday is more than just a day of donations; it embodies the spirit of our community coming together to support and uplift one another. It's a day when we unite to strengthen our school and enhance the educational experiences of our students through collective generosity.

What Giving Tuesday Means to Us:

- Community Strength:

It is a celebration of the strong bond within our St. Anthony family, where parents, alumni, faculty, and friends all come together to contribute to a common goal.

- Empowerment and Opportunity:

Your contributions directly empower our students by funding scholarships, enriching classroom resources, and supporting vital student programs. It offers opportunities for growth and learning that might otherwise be unavailable.

- Support for Excellence:

The funds raised on this day help us maintain and improve our academic programs, extracurricular activities, and facilities, ensuring we provide the best possible education for our students.

- Gratitude and Generosity:

Giving Tuesday is an opportunity to express our gratitude for the blessings we have received and to give back to our community. It's a day to practice generosity and witness the positive impact it can have on others.

Ways To GIVE:

This year we will have different ways on how you can give. You can write a check or money order to St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School, place the "Giving Tuesday" envelope in the offertory basket, bring donations directly to the school or you can use our giving platform called GIVEBUTTER!

Givebutter is a platform for our Giving Tuesday campaign. Givebutter is a user-friendly, transparent, and secure platform that makes it easy for you to donate and for us to track our fundraising progress in real-time. By using Givebutter, we can ensure that every contribution goes directly towards enhancing the educational experience at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School.

Scan Here to Give

We invite you to join us on this meaningful day of giving and help us continue our mission of providing a nurturing and academically challenging environment for our students. Together, we can make a significant difference in the lives of our young learners. Thank you for your continued support and generosity!
