It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PASTORAL ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Hey friends, have you ever had a “mountaintop moment”—that stirred your soul so deeply that you wished it could last forever? Maybe it’s a hymn that moves you to tears. Or a retreat that fills you with peace. Or a homily that speaks straight to your heart. Or the cry of a baby. Now, how did you feel when it was over?

This second Sunday of Lent, we’re standing on Mount Tabor with Jesus and His disciples. Something incredible happens. Jesus is transfigured—His face shining, His clothes dazzling white. Moses and Elijah appear, standing with Him, showing us that everything in Scripture points to Him. But here’s the thing: this isn’t just about Jesus. It’s also about us. It’s about who we’re meant to become.

Christianity isn’t about following a set of rules or checking off rituals. It’s about transformation. Conversion. It’s about becoming one with God—letting His light pour into us and radiate through us.

But let’s pause for a sec. How often do we settle for what it’s called “mountaintop Christianity”? You know, those spiritual highs that make us feel so close to God... but only last until we hit the parking lot? Ouch! We can do better than that.

These moments are precious gifts. But here’s the danger lurking here: we can start chasing effervescent experiences instead of the God behind them. We can start believing that God is only present in those extraordinary moments. And when we do, we miss Him in the quiet, ordinary moments where most of life happens.

That’s exactly what Jesus teaches His disciples as He leads them back down the mountain. Look at Peter. He’s ready to go full Airbnb host, setting up tents on Mount Tabor. He wants to stay in the numinous experience forever. And honestly—can you blame him? Who wouldn’t? But Jesus? He’s got other plans. He always does.

Faith isn’t about staying on the mountaintop. It’s about bringing the light of the mountain back into the valley—into the messy, unpredictable, sometimes heartbreaking reality of everyday life. Why? Because the mountain isn’t the destination. It’s the epiphany and the confirmation of the mysterious presence of God that equips us for every good work. It’s where we encounter God so we can carry His light into the world. So, let me ask: how might your Monday look different if you saw it through “mountain eyes”? What if the same light you experienced in worship could transform the way you respond that family conflict? That difficult co-worker or fellow-parishioner? Just name it.

This truth hits home in our fast-paced, distracted world. We live in a culture that’s lost its sense of awe and wonder. Sure, technology makes life easier and convenient, but it’s also numbed us to the mystery. We scroll, we swipe—lost in the glow of the screen. We rush, we run—chasing what we don’t even need. And all the while, God’s been here. In the cracks. In the quiet. In the ordinary. Waiting.

Karl Rahner, a theologian, once warned, “The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist at all.” Translation? Without real, personal encounters with God, our faith risks becoming hollow. Lifeless routines. Empty rituals. Abstract ideas that never touch our hearts or change our lives.

The Transfiguration shakes us awake. It whispers that Jesus’ glory isn’t some distant, unreachable reality. It’s God breaking into our world, showing us that every moment—yes, every moment—has the potential to reveal Him.

But here’s the catch: we have to surrender to it. When the Father says, “This is my Son...listen to Him,” it’s an invitation to trust, to go of control (and let’s be real – how much control do we really have, anyway?), and to open our hearts to a relationship that changes everything.

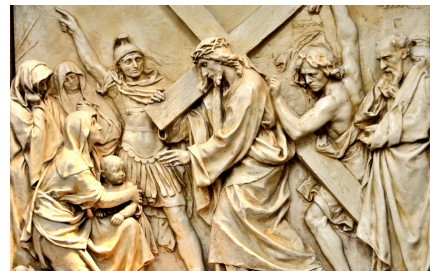

Our challenge is to live in that tension. To carry the mountain’s light into the valley’s darkness. Because the mountain gives the valley meaning, and the valley gives the mountain depth.

So, what’s next for us? Let’s carry the light – the light we experience here together at St. Anthony’s—into every corner of our lives. The light of the mountain isn’t meant to stay up there—it’s meant to transform us and, through us, the world. Are you ready to carry the light?

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women who serve in the armed forces do so with a sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to our Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stress they face each day.

HELP WANTED

The MICAHA Program is seeking volunteers to be Mentors

What is the MICAHA Program?

We are a lay ministry recognized by Bishop Fabre-Jeune and St. Anthony's.

Our mission is to help people in our community with poor credit secure a low interest loan (~4.3%). We refer to people seeking a loan from the MICAHA Program as Neighbors.

In South Carolina, financial companies can charge people with poor credit extremely high interest rates. The loans typically range in the 150% and higher range! A 12 month loan for $1,000 from a predatory lender can cost >$980 versus our low cost loan costing ~$24!

What does a Mentor do?

1. Help Neighbors with loan application
2. Recommend Neighbor for Loan
3. Accompany Neighbor to Loan Closing
4. Monthly check-ins with Neighbors

What sort of time commitment is it?

Steps 1 to 3 take between 4 to 8 hours spread across two to three weeks.

Step 4 typically takes 15 minutes a month and is done via texts, emails, phone calls or face to face.

What skills do I need?

1. Compassion and empathy toward the Neighbor
2. Basic personal finance skills
3. Listening skills

How do I sign up?

Please contact David Quast at 864.906.2632 or Jim Stavrakas at 864.325.4028
