It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PASTORAL ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

Howdy, my friends! Let me ask you something - have you ever been annoyed by someone else's behavior, only to realize later that you've done the exact same thing? Maybe your sibling is always interrupting you, your friend bails on plans again, or a coworker won't stop complaining. It's so easy to point fingers, isn't it? But then comes that humbling moment when you stop and think, Wait... I've done this too. Ouch.

But what if our judgment of others isn't just about them? What if it's also about us? Could it be that the things we dislike in others reflect something we're avoiding or even hating in ourselves? Jesus addresses this kind of behavior with an image that's both funny and convicting. He tells us to imagine a blind person trying to lead another blind person. It's a ridiculous image—two people stumbling around, completely lost. But isn't that exactly what happens when we focus on someone else's flaws while ignoring our own? Instead of seeing clearly, we're blinded by our own imperfections.

And honestly, this habit is everywhere today. We scroll through social media, silently judging someone's lifestyle, their choices, or their posts. We gossip about a friend's mistakes or roll our eyes at a coworker's attitude. Criticizing has become second nature. Let's be real - if someone has truly never judged another person, they should be canonized immediately. Did I see a hand raised? No? Thought so.

But Jesus calls us to something radically different and transformative: put down the binoculars we use to spy on others' faults and pick up a mirror to examine ourselves. Binoculars let us magnify flaws from a safe distance, but a mirror forces us to confront what we'd rather not see. The cracks. The imperfections in our own hearts.

Jesus drives the point home with a challenging question: "Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye but fail to notice the log in your own?" Ouch again, right? This isn't just a call to stop judging others—it's an invitation to self-examination. It's an invitation to take a deeper look at ourselves. To grow. To uncover what's really going on in our hearts.

In Jewish tradition, the heart wasn't just about feelings. It was the center of thought, intention, and action. So when Jesus calls us to examine ourselves, He's not asking for surface-level changes. He's asking us to dig deep, to humbly look at what drives our actions and attitudes. And let's face it: looking in the mirror is uncomfortable. It's so much easier to critique someone else than to admit where we've fallen short. But if we avoid the mirror, we miss out on something life-changing: transformation. Pope Francis didn't hold back when he said that judging others makes us "Christian murderers." Strong words, but think about it: gossip, criticism, sarcastic remarks, and eye rolls damage relationships, trust, and even our ability to love. As Mother Teresa simply put it, "We can't love others if we are judging them." Love and judgment cannot coexist.

So, how do we change? It starts with humility. Abraham Lincoln once said: "Only he who has the heart to help has the right to criticize." That's the key, isn't it? True critique doesn't come from a place of frustration or superiority—it comes from a place of compassion. Compassion begins when we stop trying to fix others and start understanding them. When we face our own shortcomings, we become more empathetic to others' struggles.

Here's a challenge for you: next time you feel the urge to judge someone, pause. Instead of criticizing, pray for them. Ask yourself: Why does this bother me so much? What might this be revealing about my own heart?

This week, let's trade judgment for humility. Let's trade our binoculars for mirrors, and ask the hard questions. What will you see when you look closely? The answer might just lead you to the freedom and love you've been searching for. The mirror reveals not only our flaws but also the grace and transformation Jesus offers us. Let's embrace the challenge together, St. Anthony fam.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women who serve in the armed forces do so with a sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to our Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stress they face each day.

A Funeral Mass for Richard Cortese, a longtime parishioner will be held on Tuesday, March 4th at 12 PM.

Visitation will begin at 10:30 AM with Mass starting at 12 PM.

Please keep the Cortese family in your prayers.

NEWS FROM OUR SCHOOL

BLACK HISTORY BOWL

The Black History Bowl at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School was initiated by Dr. Mamie Boyd in 2023 as a key component of our Black History program. Joy Battle has been instrumental in organizing and facilitating the event each year. We are proud to be celebrating our Third Annual Black History Bowl, which continues to improve each year. The purpose of the Black History Bowl is to educate and inspire students about the rich history and contributions of African Americans. By learning Black history facts and competing, students gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of the cultural heritage and achievements of Black individuals and communities. The Bowl encourages academic excellence, fosters a sense of pride, and promotes unity among students as they learn and celebrate Black history together.

This year's program was emceed by Mr. Rashad Williams, News Anchor at WYFF-TV. There were two teams that competed for the championship, showcasing their knowledge an of African American history. The event was filled with excitement and friendly competition as the two teams of four students vied for the top spot of being the winners of the Black History Bowl. There were four students who competed on an individual for the title of Black History Bowl Champion.

HELP WANTED

The MICAH Program is seeking volunteers to be Mentors

What is the MICAH Program?

We are a lay ministry recognized by Bishop Fabre-Jeune and St. Anthony's.

Our mission is to help people in our community with poor credit secure a low interest loan (~4.3%). We refer to people seeking a loan from the MICAH Program as Neighbors.

In South Carolina, financial companies can charge people with poor credit extremely high interest rates. The loans typically range in the 150% and higher range! A 12 month loan for $1,000 from a predatory lender can cost >$980 versus our low cost loan costing ~$24!

What does a Mentor do?

1. Help Neighbors with loan application
2. Recommend Neighbor for Loan
3. Accompany Neighbor to Loan Closing
4. Monthly check-ins with Neighbors

What sort of time commitment is it?

Steps 1 to 3 take between 4 to 8 hours spread across two to three weeks.

Step 4 typically takes 15 minutes a month and is done via texts, emails, phone calls or face to face.

What skills do I need?

1. Compassion and empathy toward the Neighbor
2. Basic personal finance skills
3. Listening skills

How do I sign up?

Please contact David Quast at 864.906.2632 or Jim Stavarakas at 864.325.4028
