It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc.

Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

Then the couple will begin formal marriage preparations at least six months prior to the wedding date.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

This is a process through which non-baptized adults known as catechumens or baptized adults who wish to convert from other faith traditions enter in communion with the Catholic Church. Classes begins in September. If you wish to become a Catholic, please call the parish office.

BULLETIN CONTENT SUBMISSION

Anyone parish group/organization wishing to submit items for publishing in the weekly bulletin should send the content to Daffodil Behal (sapgycomms@gmail.com) by end of day Tuesday for the coming weekend's bulletin. Submissions after the deadline will be included in the Sunday email.

Do you have a couple of hours to volunteer?

Our school is looking for volunteers to work in the school library. Virtus training is required. If you are not trained, it is easy to complete. Interested persons should email Sharon Scovel at scovelsc@aol.com or Paulette Payne at Paulettejpayne@charter.com. Thank you for your support.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is not only about the needs of church, rather it is about our desires to give back to God in thanksgiving; by sharing with others the blessings the Lord has bestowed on us. If you would be interested in joining our Stewardship Committee, please contact Jay Pitts at 864-233-7717 ext. 4.

The true spirit of Stewardship is "Equal Sacrifice and not Equal Giving."

SPIRITUAL LIFE

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PASTORAL ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

My friends in Christ, have you ever stood in front of a mirror and wondered, 'Who am I, really?' On Ash Wednesday, we are given a visible answer to that question—a cross of dust on our foreheads. This mark tells the world, and reminds us, who we are and whose we are as we step into this Lenten journey. It echoes our baptismal truth: we belong to Christ. In this sacred moment, we become living paradoxes: dust bearing divinity, mortality touching eternity, sinners marked by salvation.

Think about it: the same God who formed the stars also formed you from dust. And yet, that dust carries His image, His breath of life. This paradox says so much about our worth and our purpose. We are fragile, yet eternal in Him. We are sinners, yet loved beyond measure. But hear me out, friends. In a world pulling us in countless opposing directions, this mark is also a challenge. It calls us to live differently, to rediscover who we are and who God has called us to be.

In this Sunday's Gospel from Luke, we see Jesus enter the wilderness, led by the Spirit—a barren place of testing, dependence, revelation, and transformation - becomes a metaphor for our own lives. It is a space where distractions are stripped away, and we are confronted with our truest selves. In this vulnerability, we encounter God in ways that reshape us.

Consider your life today. Think of the noise: buzzing phones, endless emails, doomscrolling, notifications that never stop. This is our modern wilderness. A desert of busyness and distraction that leaves little room for silence, reflection, or God. Yet, if we have the courage to face it, this desert can also become the womb of transformation. What is your wilderness? What is pulling you away from God's voice?

When Satan tempted Jesus, he began with the same tactic he uses on us: doubt. "If you are the Son of God..." Temptation often begins with questioning our identity, doubting our worth, and wondering if God is really with us. But Jesus responded not with power or spectacle, but with humility. He resisted three timeless temptations that we still wrestle with:

- The lure of self-gratification: our obsession with instant results and personal comfort.
- The trap of testing God: treating faith as a transaction, expecting God to act on our terms.
- The idolization of power: measuring success by influence, possessions, or status.

Jesus didn't fall for any of it. Instead, He chose the path of humility, surrender, and servanthood. The Cross, then, is not just a symbol of suffering—it is the ultimate path of love, service, and redemption.

Lent invites us to embrace the ashes—not as a defeat, but as fertile ground for renewal. Yes, in the ashes of humility, vulnerability, and surrender, God begins His work. He takes our broken pieces and forms something new. Lent challenges us to shift from a transactional faith - what can I get from God? - to a transformational trust: Lord, how can You change me? How can You use me?

As Carlo Carretto wrote, "The desert is where the Spirit waits to dwell within you." The Spirit waits for you to make a space. This season calls us to live as true disciples—serving, loving, reflecting Christ's compassion.

So let this Lent ignite a revolution in your heart. Let it strip away the false identities and noisy distractions, replacing them with clarity, courage, and commitment. Never forget your baptismal truth: you belong to Christ! Say it with me: "I belong to Christ!"

From the ashes, we will rise—not just as individuals, but as a renewed and united community of St. Anthony, ready to shine Christ's light in a world longing for hope. This Lent is our opportunity to become who God designed us to be. Step boldly into the wilderness. Remember: You are dust, but you are loved. You are broken, but you are being made whole. Together, we belong to Christ. May these truths shape our Lent and our lives. Amen

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women who serve in the armed forces do so with a sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to our Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stress they face each day.

NEWS FROM OUR SCHOOL

BLACK HISTORY MONTH ACTIVITIES

St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School celebrated Black History Month with a series of engaging and educational activities. The festivities kicked off with an exciting Hair and Fashion show. The school held several Black History Reflection assemblies featuring notable speakers like Kathleen Merritt, Brandon Williams, and Pastor Wendell Jones.

A standout addition to the Black History program was an assembly featuring Sammy Dotson and the Legacy Early College Choir and Drama Class, who performed songs from The Wiz. The St. Anthony of Padua Mixed Choir and Praise Dancers also gave captivating performances. The celebration included a Living Museum and Art Showcase, where students dressed up and presented their research on notable Black figures in history. Each month, the school highlights a different country, and in February, they focused on the continent of Africa, exploring various African countries.

The culminating event was the Black History Bowl, emceed by Rashad Williams of WYFF-TV. The school's team of Historians—Caleb Strickland, Ava'Brielle Mack, Michael Geno, and Paige Channer—won the bowl. Maleek McMillan emerged victorious in the individual competition, claiming the coveted Black History Bowl Championship.

SUPERINTENDENT DONOHUE

Ms. Colleen Donohue, Superintendent of the Charleston Diocese, visited our school on February 6. She received a warm welcome in the gym, where students presented her with welcome signs, heartfelt notes of thanks, and a special performance by the All-Males Boys Choir. She delivered an inspiring speech to the assembled students, faculty, and staff. During her visit, she took the time to visit every classroom, connect with the students, and attend Mass in the church.

In her thank-you letter to the school, Ms. Donohue expressed her gratitude, saying: Thank you for the warm welcome and special gathering of your staff and students. I thoroughly enjoyed my visit to St. Anthony of Padua School and Parish! Thank you for all that you do to make it such a special place. I can see the Light of Christ in the eyes of your students and trust that they will continue to learn more and more about the Catholic faith while striving for academic excellence!

FACULTY RECOGNITION

Mrs. Joy Battle, a 4th-grade teacher at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School, has been selected as Upstate Parent's "Educator Who Makes a Difference" for April 2025. This recognition is well-deserved, as Mrs. Battle has demonstrated remarkable dedication to her students and her school community.

For the past three years, she has coordinated key events such as the Black History Bowl, the Spelling Bee, and the "Foods and Cultures from Around the World" program. In addition, Mrs. Battle sponsors a Homework Club, where she stays after school to provide extra assistance to any student in need. She is also preparing to launch a Beta Club for 4th-grade students, further enriching their educational experience.

Through her innovative ideas, tireless commitment, and unwavering passion for education, Mrs. Battle exemplifies what it means to be an outstanding educator. She is truly deserving of this prestigious honor.

MINISTRY LIFE

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE:

We are seeking volunteers to serve on the Stewardship committee for St Anthonys. The mission of the committee is advance and encourage the spirituality of Stewardship through personal invitation, opportunities, formation, and practical initiatives. Please call or email Jay Pitts 864-233-7717 ext. 105 or Jpittsstewardship@gmail.com to sign up to volunteer.

HOSPITALITY MINISTRY UPDATE

The first meeting of the Hospitality Ministry will be on Tuesday, March 18th at 6 PM in the Social Hall. This ministry will be for all who are interested in volunteering.

All Ushers, Greeters and new Parishioners Dinner Committee are asked to attend. The purpose of the Hospitality Ministry is to recruit greeters and ushers at all Masses, welcome visitors who attend our Church and assist in a welcome dinner to all our newest parishioners twice a year. We look forward to seeing you at the meeting.

HELP WANTED

The MICAH Program is seeking volunteers to be Mentors

What is the MICAH Program?

We are a lay ministry recognized by Bishop Fabre-Jeune and St. Anthony's.

Our mission is to help people in our community with poor credit secure a low interest loan (~4.3%). We refer to people seeking a loan from the MICAH Program as Neighbors.

In South Carolina, financial companies can charge people with poor credit extremely high interest rates. The loans typically range in the 150% and higher range! A 12 month loan for $1,000 from a predatory lender can cost >$980 versus our low cost loan costing ~$24!

What does a Mentor do?

1. Help Neighbors with loan application
2. Recommend Neighbor for Loan
3. Accompany Neighbor to Loan Closing
4. Monthly check-ins with Neighbors

What sort of time commitment is it?

Steps 1 to 3 take between 4 to 8 hours spread across two to three weeks.

Step 4 typically takes 15 minutes a month and is done via texts, emails, phone calls or face to face.

What skills do I need?

1. Compassion and empathy toward the Neighbor
2. Basic personal finance skills
3. Listening skills

How do I sign up?

Please contact David Quast at 864.906.2632 or Jim Stavrakas at 864.325.4028

HEALTH MINISTRY UPDATE

The Health Ministry is sponsoring The Walk to Jerusalem.

We are making it easier for you this year.

You don't even need to sign up. All you need is do is keep track of your steps and put your name and weekly steps on a piece of paper and place them in the box in the lobby each week. The box will say Walk to Jerusalem.

Also, we are making it easier to get involved with the Walk. Each Sunday after 8, 10, and 12pm masses the gym will be open for you. There will be a health ministry member to record your steps. We will let you how many steps it takes to do a lap.

Let's get walking friends!

Any questions call Mary McNicholas. 864-630-1081
