PRAYER

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PASTORAL ADMINISTRATOR

Fr. Emerson Rodriguez Delgado

My dear friends, can you feel it? The anticipation, the energy, the joy of Pentecost is in the air. It's here! Pentecost is a time to remember the fire, the wind, and the Spirit's transformative power that changed everything. It marks the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples, empowering them to carry Jesus' mission to the whole world.

Let's start with something simple: your breath. That steady rhythm, so constant and vital, sustains us every single moment. This Sunday, we reflect on the ultimate breath of life—the Holy Spirit. The very breath of God! In John 20:22, the Gospel tells us: "And with that, Jesus breathed on them and said, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

Picture that moment. Jesus, breathing His Spirit into His disciples, filling them with life, hope, and purpose. That same Spirit is with us today, as close as the air we breathe, as near as our next breath. The Spirit gives us life through our breath, but the Spirit also moves us to love. And love, as we all know, is the deepest longing of every human heart.

In every relationship, we carry a deep desire: the need to know and experience love. "If you love me, let me know." Think about the ways you've experienced love—through the warm embrace of a parent, the laughter of a friend, or the quiet support of someone who truly cares. Love isn't just words; it's proven through presence, care, and devotion. And the Holy Spirit? The Spirit is God's way of showing us His love—repeatedly, unceasingly, and faithfully. The Spirit is our constant reminder that God is with us—always. Actively moving, whispering, guiding, and loving us in ways we often fail to recognize.

Pentecost is an invitation. A call to reignite our faith. It's a chance to recognize the Spirit's power moving within us and within the Church, both quietly and boldly. Think about the Spirit's symbols—wind, water, fire, a dove, a cloud. What do they all have in common? They're dynamic, uncontainable, and transformative. And that's exactly how the Spirit works: reshaping us, renewing us, and filling us with purpose.

So, let me ask you this: When was the last time you truly paused to be aware of the Spirit's presence? Who do you feel closest to in your faith journey—God the Father, the Son, or the Holy Spirit? And why?

Let's be honest—sometimes faith and attending mass can feel routine, like a checklist we're just trying to get through. Without the Spirit, it's easy to feel stuck, uninspired, or even distant from God and from one another. But here's the good news: the Spirit changes everything.

Without the Spirit, Jesus is just a story. With the Spirit, He's alive—real and present. Without the Spirit, church might feel like an obligation. With the Spirit, it becomes a messy, grace-filled family, united in purpose. Without the Spirit, faith can feel like a duty. With the Spirit, it becomes an adventure—overflowing with joy, discovery, and renewal. Who wouldn't want to be part of that?

This Pentecost, let me ask you: What would it look like to let the Spirit move in your life? What might change if you invited Him to breathe fresh life into your faith, your relationships, or your sense of purpose?

Maybe you're carrying the weight of a difficult decision, the grief of a heavy loss, or the uncertainty of the future. Remember this: the Spirit is closer than your breath. Embrace His presence. Let Him sustain you, guide you, and remind you that you are never alone.

This week, I challenge you to take five minutes each day to pause and be still. Breathe deeply and ask the Spirit to guide you. Write down one way you feel called to say 'yes' to the Spirit. Maybe it's reaching out to someone who needs encouragement. Forgiving someone who hurt you. Or stepping into a new opportunity with faith—volunteering for a ministry in your church or community. How might your heart—and your community—be transformed by this simple 'yes'?

So this Pentecost, my dear St Anthony's fam, let's open our hearts and with supplication say: Come, Holy Spirit! Let Your mighty wind sweep through our lives, Your fire ignite our souls with renewed passion and purpose, and Your love carry us forward, transforming us into vessels of unity, grace, and unstoppable faith. With the Spirit, there are no limits—only endless possibilities.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women who serve in the armed forces do so with a sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to our Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stress they face each day.

Religious Education

Vacation Bible School Highlights

With the theme of “Come to the Table” our participants, age K5–5th grade, explored stories from the Gospels of Luke and John which show Jesus eating with unexpected people, providing food for a crowd, demonstrating humility, and extending welcome and forgiveness. Through stories, crafts, games and prayers, the children learned that EVERYONE is invited to God’s table and that when you eat with Jesus, anything can happen!

A heartfelt thank you to all our amazing volunteers—especially Katie Gilchrist and Ruth Robertson—for their dedication and joyful service during Vacation Bible School. We are also deeply grateful to everyone who generously donated supplies and to the parents who supported their children in attending and growing in their faith. Your commitment made this special week possible!

News from The MICAH Program

Please learn more about The MICAH Program at www.micahprogram.org. We are seeking people to become Mentors for people in need of a loan. Please contact us at 864-610-5380 if you would like to join us or offer financial support to the program.

Our Impact So Far – MICAH Loan Program

Since The MICA Program began in 2020, we have helped 22 individuals avoid predatory lenders by providing fair, affordable loans. Instead of facing interest rates as high as 300%—common among some fringe financial institutions—our Neighbors received loans at just 4.3% interest from Self-Help Credit Union.

In total, Self-Help Credit Union issued $27,000 in loans with our backing. More importantly, we've helped our Neighbors avoid paying more than $59,000 in excessive interest charges. That's not just financial relief—it's empowerment, stability, and a fresh start.

Thank you to our volunteers, mentors, donors, and supporters for making this possible. Together, we are changing lives and building a more just financial future.
