It is a wonderful Catholic tradition to request a Mass Intention for loved ones; living or deceased. In fact, asking for Mass intention for the deceased is not only Catholic tradition, it is biblical (2 Maccabees 12: 38-46).

Mass intention is also a wonderful gift for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, in thanksgiving for a prayer answered, etc. Mass intention donations are $10 each. Please call the parish office to schedule a Mass Intention.

Beyond the Noise: Gratitude and Radical Inclusion

In a world where social media debates escalate into battlegrounds and headlines fuel division, it's easy to feel like we're losing touch with our shared humanity. How do we rise above the noise? How can we embody something deeper—gratitude and radical inclusion—in a culture that often thrives on separation and hostility?

This Sunday's Gospel offers us a profound lens: the story of the ten lepers (Lk 17:11-19). Outcast from society, they encounter Jesus and experience healing. Yet only one—a Samaritan, the outsider—returns to give thanks. His gratitude wasn't just a polite gesture; it transformed him. In that moment, he received not only physical healing but also the fullness of Christ's love and salvation. Gratitude, then, is more than a simple response—it becomes a doorway to transformation. As Meister Eckhart, the great 13th-century mystic, said, "If the only prayer you said was thank you, that would be enough."

St. Paul's words to the Thessalonians echo this truth: "In all circumstances, give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." Yet let's be honest—gratitude isn't always our first instinct. How often do we pause to notice and appreciate the ways God moves in our lives? Not just in the big, obvious blessings but in the quiet, everyday moments we often overlook? Gratitude shifts our perspective, pulling us away from what divides us and pointing us toward what unites us: God's abundant grace. It reminds us that even in our brokenness, we are recipients of mercy and love. When we cultivate a grateful heart, it softens our divisions and allows us to see others not as adversaries but as fellow children of God.

But gratitude is only the beginning. Jesus's healing power points us toward something even greater: radical inclusion. Jesus didn't limit His healing based on race, status, or belief. The Samaritan—someone society deemed unworthy—was embraced, restored, and saved. Think about that. In today's culture, where canceling, labeling, and judging have become second nature, this message feels more urgent than ever. Who are the "lepers" in our lives? Who are the people we've avoided, excluded, or dismissed? Maybe it's someone who's hurt us. Maybe it's someone we don't understand, or even that coworker with the frustrating political opinions. That family member with the grudge? Jesus calls us to love boldly, to break down the barriers we've built, and to extend the same inclusion and mercy that He offers to us. Jesus is calling us to something greater. Radical inclusion means breaking down those walls—those walls of judgment, pride, and fear—and seeing people the way God sees them as beloved children of God, worthy of dignity, grace, and belonging.

Living with gratitude and inclusion isn't easy. It takes humility to recognize God's blessings and courage to embrace those who challenge us. But when we do, we reflect Christ's heart in a deeply fractured world. Gratitude moves us to action, opening our hands to serve and our hearts to love. Inclusion bridges divides, reminding us that no one is beyond the reach of God's grace.

This week, here is your challenge: let's take time to pause and recognize the ways God is at work in our lives. Let's name the blessings we've overlooked and allow gratitude to reshape our hearts. And let's take one small step toward inclusion—reach out to that person you've avoided. Listen without judgment. Offer forgiveness, even if it's hard. Because when we do, we open the door for God's grace to flow through us. And oh, church, when God's grace flows, healing happens. Amen.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

The men and women who serve in the armed forces do so with a sacrificial love for our country and the world. Lifting them up in prayer to our Lord must be our humble, and yet great support for them.

Lord, may your love encircle our military as they work across the world to install justice and peace for all. And be their hope through the difficulties and stress they face each day.

Prayer of the Rosary before Weekend Mass

Prayer of the Rosary 20 minutes prior to each weekend Mass. We encourage all ministries & groups to begin their meetings with praying of the rosary.

Thank You from the Prison Ministry & Kairos Program

The Parish Prison Ministry and Kairos Team extend heartfelt thanks to the parishioners of St. Anthony for your incredible generosity and prayers.

During the Kairos Weekend held at Perry Correctional Institution (Oct. 2-5, 2025), your contributions made a powerful impact—over 300 dozen cookies, 200 hours of prayer, and 50+ handmade placemats from our CCD students were shared as expressions of Christ's love. Each of the 850 residents and correctional officers received two dozen cookies with a Scripture message, a simple yet profound reminder of God's grace.

The weekend was filled with talks, chapel reflections, and moments of deep spiritual renewal. One resident shared, "Tears came to my eyes when I saw a placemat that said, 'You are always loved by Jesus.' I realized I was no longer alone." Another said, "Someone who never met me took the time to bake a cookie for me—this must be what grace tastes like."

Thank you for allowing the Holy Spirit to work through you to bring love, peace, and forgiveness to the least of His brothers.

NEWS FROM OUR SCHOOL

Dear St. Anthony of Padua Community,

I am pleased to share an exciting step forward in our commitment to academic excellence for the 2025-2026 school year. Through a strategic renewal effort, we are launching a focused teacher-formation program that will deepen our faculty's expertise in differentiated instruction and assessment in reading. By securing dedicated funding from the Institute for Multi-Sensory Education (IMSE), we are establishing a cohesive pedagogical foundation that will strengthen our school culture and lift student outcomes across every tier of our Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS).

Professional Development in Literacy

IMSE's structured-literacy training, aligned with the Science of Reading, will be offered in two accredited courses tailored to each grade level:

1. Impact Comprehensive Orton-Gillingham Plus (30 hrs) – An in-depth exploration of the Orton-Gillingham methodology, covering phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension.
2. Impact Morphology Plus (30 hrs) – A focus on morphology, vocabulary, and comprehension strategies that enrich literacy instruction.

What We Anticipate for Our School

1. Enhanced Teacher Expertise – All participating teachers will become proficient in the Science of Reading and Structured Literacy approaches.
2. Targeted Support for Readers – Faculty will be equipped to identify and assist students with reading difficulties, including dyslexia, using evidence-based methods.
3. Data-Driven, Differentiated Instruction – Assessment data will guide instruction across all MTSS tiers, ensuring each learner receives the support they need.
4. Multi-Sensory Learning Integration – Teachers will embed multi-sensory strategies into daily literacy lessons, fostering deeper engagement and retention.
5. Access to Digital Resources – IMSE's digital tools will streamline lesson planning, progress monitoring, and individualized student support.

By investing in this comprehensive professional development, we are not only raising the bar for instructional quality but also nurturing a collaborative, growth-oriented culture that reflects our Catholic values of excellence, compassion, and service. I look forward to witnessing the positive impact this initiative will have on our students, teachers, and the entire St. Anthony community.

This strategic initiative was made possible by the generous support of parishoners. Thank you for your continued partnership and support as we embark on this transformative journey together.

In Christ Beloved,
Brian Long

St. Anthony's Catholic School Needs You!
